The acts of misconduct on the following pages which are preceded by an asterisk (*) also violate criminal laws, and the Chicago Police Department must be notified by the school for each violation. Acts of misconduct preceded by double asterisks () may also be violations of criminal law and may require police notification if the misconduct is serious and/or the student persists in misconduct after being told to cease such behavior. Whenever the school notifies the police concerning student misconduct, the school must also immediately attempt to contact the parent/guardian of that student. If questions occur concerning police notification, please consult the Law Department at (773) 553-1700.

APPEALS TO DISCIPLINARY ACTION

All appeals of a student's suspension, after a final decision by the principal, shall be made to the Chief Education Officer or designee (in writing if requested).
