Johnson was selected for turnaround through reconstitution because of (A) its probation history, (B) it meets the final turnaround criteria adopted by the CEO, and (C) reconstitution is in the best interests of the present students of Johnson, as detailed below.

A. Johnson's Probation History. Johnson has been on probation for the last five (5) years, including the current school year. During that time Johnson has received support in the form of: a full-time literacy.
